SANDERS MAKES TWO APPOINTMENTS TO THE SAN DIEGO COUNTY WATER AUTHORITY

SAN DIEGO – Mayor Jerry Sanders has appointed Joseph W. Craver and Kenneth R. Williams for appointment to the San Diego County Water Authority, subject to City Council confirmation.

Joseph W. Craver is the founder of Galaxie Management, Inc., a nationwide marketing company with representatives in nine locations throughout the United States. Prior to establishing his own company, Mr. Craver retired as Colonel in the U.S. Air Force where he served in the Pentagon procuring all Air Force aircraft, missiles and spare parts with an annual check-writing authority of 13 billion dollars per year. A combat veteran, Mr. Craver was a Command Pilot logging over 8,000 flying hours, and among many honors, earned a Silver Star, Distinguished Flying Cross for Gallantry, a Bronze Star and Purple Heart.

Mr. Craver earned his MA at Stanford University, a BS at Arizona State University and is also a graduate of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Craver has many years of community involvement in San Diego which includes service as Chairman of the San Diego Base Realignment and Closure of 1995, Chairman of the Work Force Partnership, Chairman of the San Diego Regional Chamber of Commerce, Chairman of the San Diego County Regional Airport Authority, Board Member of the San Diego Symphony, and Board Member of the Armed Services YMCA. He presently serves as First Vice Chairman of the San Diego Convention and Visitors Bureau, a Board Member of San Diego Fleet Week, Board Member of the Midway Aircraft Museum and on the Board of Directors for the San Diego Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Kenneth R. Williams retired as the President and Chief Operating Officer of Jack in the Box, Incorporated in 2002, after being with the company since 1966. In this role he was responsible for the bottom line of a $2 billion NYSE Corporation and managed reporting departments from across the company including marketing, operations, human resources, information systems, purchasing, distributions and quality control. During his tenure, Mr. Williams guided the introduction and development of the highly successful “Jack” advertising campaign and mentored numerous employees who have gone on to hold significant positions at Jack in the Box and other corporations.

Mr. Williams holds a degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Pennsylvania and an MBA from the University of California, Los Angeles.

Mr. Williams has made many long-term civic commitments in San Diego over the years including volunteer service as a Board Member, Chair and Finance Committee Chair of San Diego Hospice and Board Member, Finance Committee Chair and Board Development Committee Chair of Meals on Wheels San Diego. In addition, Mr. Williams is a Docent at the San Diego Museum of Art, serves on the Marketing Committee of Sharp Hospital and is a member of the Lincoln Club of San Diego.

Mr. Williams will complete the unexpired term of Benjamin A. Haddad, who has resigned, for a term ending July 15, 2010.
